

Bethlehem, Bethlehem, Though You Are Small

words & music by Gary Hicks based on Micah 5:2

Beth - le - hem, Beth - le - hem, though you are small, From your cold There lie the shep - herds on your lone - ly hill, wait - ing for There in your sta - ble, the One from of old, Sleep - ing con -
There in your hid - den place God be - came man, Help - less and 6

creche comes the Sav - ior of all; Though you are hum - ble and day - break, the all si - lent and still; Sud - den - ly, sud - den - ly, tent - ed - ly, all safe from the cold; None but the shep - herds to need - y, as heav - en had planned; Grace and com - pas - sion and hid - den a - way, Mar - y's son Je - sus lies nest - led in hay.

11
thun - der and light, An - gels un - num - bered burst forth in the night.
wel - come this guest, No great pa - rade for the pur - est and best.
love with - out end: He is our Sav - ior, the world's great - est Friend!